McClenny - Carson

Miss Laura Elizabeth Carson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carey Carson, of Appomattox, and Robert Edward McClenny, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClenny, of Pamplin, were married Thursday, November 23, at 3 P. M., at Hebron Baptist Church, Appomattox.

The Rev. John P. Leitner officiated at the double ring ceremony. A program of wedding music was provided by Mrs. Bill Elbert, pianist, and Miss Betty Alvis, soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white silk organza, and net over taffeta, designed with cap sleeves and a princess bodice. The neckline and bodice were accented with appliqued alencon lace embroidered with seed pearls. The rounded skirt featured an obi sash also appliqued with lace and formed a chapel train in the back. The bride's fingertip veil of illusion fell from a crown of seed pearls and sequins, and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations and an orchid.

Miss Cary Ann Carson was her sister's only attendant. She wore a gown of tan taffeta and organza with a short sleeved bodice attached to a front panel of taffeta, a full organza overskirt completing the street length skirt.

William E. Mahone, Jr., of Newport News, was best man. Ushers were Lloyd Walton, of Danville, and Daniel E. Carson, of Appomattox, cousin of the bride.

After the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained with a reception in their home.

The bride is a graduate of Appomattox High School, and she is now a senior at Longwood College.

The bridegroom was graduated from Pamplin High School and Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Hixburg

Hixburg, Dec. 4.- The hunting season opened with a bang Monday, Nov. 20. Hunters gathered at Hixburg and dispersed in different directions. Mr. Wagner, of Pamplin got a nice, plump deer the second day.

Captain Cavington didn't have to stalk his deer. Two dogs chased a big buck into Captain's cornfield, and he just walked out and shot it.

Also, Bradley Baldwin and Dug Maxwell each got a deer that day.

Miss Maggie Hix celebrated her 95th birthday on Monday, November 27. Her mind was clear and she was interested in the news, and her many cards. Dr. Williams wrote a verse on his card:

"So now to 95 you are!
Twould take a search that's mighty far
To find someone who keeps like you,
The zest of life the way you do."

Her recent callers were Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Fore, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Irving, Mrs. Leslie Hart, Mrs. Boyd Ford, Mrs. Henry Covington, and Dr. Twyman Williams.

Mrs. Rena Glover, who underwent surgery in the Virginia Baptist Hospital, is reported to be improving.

John Hix goes back and forth to the Farmville Hospital for treatment.

Cdr. Patrick Lair left on Monday for Portsmouth, where he will receive a periodical check-up.

Mr. Watkins McPhillips and family, of Richmond spent Thanksgiving holidays in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed McPhillips.

Mrs. Jennie Young is spending the winter in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Rob Martin.

Robert Walker Covington is at Fort Jackson, South Carolina. He will come home on December 22, and will have 15 days holiday.

New role for colleges in space program.

Vera

Vera, Dec. 4.- "A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, loving favors than silver and gold." -Proverbs 22-1.

We are starting on our first winter month. We hope for nice weather.

Mrs. T. C. Harvey and Harriette visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Carson on Saturday.

We are sorry to hear of the illness of Mr. Doc Franklin, and we hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mrs. Peggy Harvey visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Saturday.

Mrs. Robert Coleman visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Friday night.

We are sorry to hear that Mr. Walker Webb is sick. We hope for him a speedy recovery.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Moses and Mrs. Mary Weaver were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Tuesday.

We are sorry to hear that Mrs. Wade Ferguson is in the hospital.

We hope that she may have a speedy recovery.

Mr. Jimmie Harvey visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Harvey on Sunday night.

We are sorry to hear of the passing of Mr. Charlie Carnefix. We extend sympathy to his family.

Farmers are busy getting their tobacco to market and they are getting good prices.

Mail Early

Appomattox County postmasters announced today that the 1961 "Mail Early For Christmas" campaign is now in high gear, but they expressed concern because mailing of Christmas gift packages seems to be lagging and too many people do not realize the need for careful packing and wrapping of their cherished Christmas gifts.

They stated, "It's hard to understand why people will be so careless about putting valuable Christmas gifts into the mails in flimsy boxes and loosely wrapped packages. Many of these poorly wrapped gifts simply cannot stand the necessary handling, and thus cause much delay and disappointment all around.

The postmasters said further, "We cannot emphasize too strongly the importance of careful Christmas mailing procedures. For example, it's best to print the recipient's full name, street address, city, zone number and state on each mailing label, making sure to include an extra label inside your gift packages."

Only one address is permitted on the outer wrapping on parcels.

DEATH

MRS. IRA C. SOUTHALL

Mrs. Janie Hubbard Southall, 69, of Pamplin, wife of Ira C. Southall, died last Wednesday morning in Lynchburg General Hospital. Born in Appomattox County, she was the daughter of William and Callie Childress Hubbard. Survivors in addition to her husband, are four sons, William A. Southall, Milton J. Southall, and Ira C. Southall, Jr., all of Pamplin, and M. C. Southall, of Richmond; four daughters, Mrs. Hazel Elizabeth Goin, of Prospect; Miss Eva Mae Southall, of Pamplin; Mrs. W. C. Layne and Mrs. W. W. Southall, of Farmville; seven grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Funeral services were conducted Friday afternoon at Beale Memorial Presbyterian Church, by Rev. Herman Doody and the Rev. C. P. Price. Burial was in the church cemetery. Pallbearers were Charlie Williams, Rob Martin, Wesley Beale, Frank Irving, Woodrow Williams, C. W. Slayton, and Harry Baldwin.

382 CAUGHT VIOLATING GAME AND FISH, AND BOATING LAWS

A total of 382 person were convicted of violating Virginia's game, fish and boating laws during October, according to Webb Midyette, Chief of the Game Commission's Law Enforcement Division. Violators paid a total of $7,000 in fines and court cost as a result of these convictions.

Leading the list with 67 out of 232 game law violations was hunting without permission of the landowner, but the 54 convictions for hunting without a license ran a close second. Illegal guns prompted 12 convictions and six hunters were found guilty of exceeding the bag limit. Four persons were found guilty of spotlighting and drew fines of up to $250 apiece.

Hunting during the closed season was the charge in 53 of the cases. Eight hunters were found hunting on national forests without the National Forest Stamp. Fishing without a license was the charge in 61 of the 91 convictions on violations of the fishing laws. Fourteen boaters were convicted of failure to register their boats, and 33 were found guilty of not having proper safety equipment on their crafts. Two were convicted on other charges.

LIVELINESS AND LUXURY AT A LOW, LOW PRICE

NEW CHEVY II

Never before such a team of totally new cars! Sedans, hardtop, station wagons, even a convertible . . . you name it, Chevy II has it. Nine models in all now in production. They're easy on the eyes, easy on the road and easy on your pocketbook. Two spunky engines, a four and a six (your choice in most models), purr along merrily on regular gas—and darn little of it, too. Thanks to Mono-Plate rear springs, the ride reminds you of the big Chevrolet—and you know how smooth that is. The space and cushy comfort inside put you in mind of big cars, too. But Chevy II parts company from anything else around when it comes to offering all these fine features —at a sensible low price. Check your Chevrolet dealer and see for yourself. CHEVROLET

CHEVY II 300 4-DOOR 3-SEAT STATION WAGON. Packs a whopping 76.2 cu. ft. of cargo.

CHEVY II NOVA 400 CONVERTIBLE. It's Chevrolet's newest and lowest priced convertible.

CHEVY II 300 4-DOOR SEDAN. Chevy II's saving ways in a practical 6-passenger family model.

Now . . . look 'em over and try one out!

CHEVY II NOVA 400 SPORT COUPE. Handsome hardtop with top-of-the-line go and glamor—at a pleasin' kind of price.
